AN OUTRAGE BY ONE OF HOLDEN'S PETS. We learn that a youngman by the name of McKinney or McKinnis, was most brutally assaulted at Troy, Montgomery county, on Monday night of last week, by Geo. Graham, one of Holden's especial pets. Graham was standing on the piazza of the and just as McKinney was passing by, he (Graham) sung out, "Hurrah for Grant and Blair." Graham instantly rushed upon him and felled him to the earth by a powerful blow with some instrument, (report says a slung shot), cutting Mck.'s for some time. A distinguished medical gentleman present gave it as his opinion, after examination, that the outer wall of his skull was fractured.

It appears that he had embarked in a batteau at some point above Gaston, and had thus made his way to Milton, but he had reckoned without his host, for the boatmen becoming aware of whom they had in tow, as soon as they arrived in Milton had him arrested and lodged in the Caswell county jail, where he is now awaiting the order of the officials from this county.

We are glad to hear of the recapture of this desperate scoundrel, and trust that proper means may be taken to prevent his escape in the future. If the Halifax jail cannot be made sufficiently secure, let him be removed to some place where a proper quard can be obtained. - Weldon News.

THE CROP PROSPECT. - The prospect for a good yield of corn in this section is of a exception of the few fields of early corn injured by the drouth, the yield is larger than it has been for many years. This will have a most beneficial effect in the future, as this year the great scarcity of this commodity has had a most damaging effect upon our people, as its want was felt in a manner anything but pleasant.

We continue to hear the most flattering accounts from the cotton fields-the weath er for the past few weeks has been propitions to its opening, and it is anticipated that the yield thereof through this section will be good. The crop seeded was of course not as large as in former years, but the farmers have not been at one half the expense they were last year, and the product of the crop will of a consequence be of a much larger nett result than heretofore. Should the market open at anything like a fair price, as is anticipated, this section at least will be placed in a much more healthy condition in a monetary view. Weldon News.
